My Name is Corey Michalski, Owner and Broker of Living the Dream Real Estate Team! I started in real estate in 2004 and have had a rewarding career. My husband and I have been together for over twenty years and have worked together in many different endeavors: from flipping and building homes, owning a bar and grill, and raising 3 amazing children along with a herd of cattle and a hand full of horses. My Husband owns and operates his excavating business and I am dedicated to my real estate passion! I felt like it was the right time in my life to open my own brokerage with the goal of giving the small town feel and attention to all my Clients! You can Call Carol, Gloria, Jenny, Sarah, or myself and we will all work together for the best outcome for our customers! I believe that simply being Honest, truly ethical, patient, confident, kind, perseverant, and willing to learn will be our success as a team! My motto has always been Real Estate is more than selling houses its building relationships!

JUNE is MEN'S HEALTH MONTH

Mental health is essential to a person's life in the same way as physical health. Hesitation to talk about mental health adds to the notion that the topic is taboo. It is important to normalize conversations surrounding mental health so people can feel empowered to seek the help they need .

- Approximately 33.15 million men in the U.S., representing 19.7%, reported experiencing some form of mental illness in the past year. Stressors such as financial concerns, job-related pressures, and current events can negatively impact men's mental health. Source: NAMI
- Additionally, the risk of suicide is a significant concern for men, with up to 80% of all suicide deaths occurring among males. 6 million American men experience clinical depression annually, and many remain undiagnosed. Source: NAMI
