MAYVILLE sunflower festival

By Meaghan Mitchell

For The Advertiser

MAYVILLE — The 32nd annual Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival runs from Thursday, July 20 to Sunday, July 23. The Sunflower Festival committee and sponsors are proud to present a number of free community events, family entertainment, shopping, prizes, and more.

This year's festival follows local tradition since 1991, when a group of Mayville residents decided to host what started as "a small summertime event." The Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival has "grown over the years to become one of the Thumb's largest festivals," according to the festival's website.

Next weekend, a number of community organizations are hosting or sponsoring events to create a busy schedule. Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival Committee President, Cammie Asmus, calls it a "big collaboration."

Among the organizations hosting events are the Mayville Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie 4409, the Mayville Area Museum of History and Genealogy, Tuscola County Veterans' Affairs, Mayville Community Schools, Frankenmuth Credit Union, and more.

"This is more than just a festival; there are a lot of organizations putting it all together," Asmus says.

Events begin at 9 a.m. on Thursday, July 20 with the Village Garage/ Yard Sales. The sales will also run Friday, July 21 and Saturday, July 22 starting at the same time. For more shopping, an art show and bake sale will occur at 10 a.m. on July 20 and July 21 at the Mayville District Public Library. More crafts and treats can be purchased throughout the weekend from various vendors.

The festival's official kickoff, however, is at 6 p.m. on Thursday, July 20 at the opening ceremonies at Ohmer Park. Immediately following, the Mayville State Bank vintage baseball team will face off with the Mighty River Hogs of Midland at 7 p.m. at Ohmer Park.

On Friday, July 21, the Veterans' Family Fun Event returns after a "huge turnout" last year, according to Asmus. The free event runs from noon to 4 p.m. at the veterans' pavilion at the museum, 2124 E. Ohmer Road, offering food and child-friendly activities.

"That drew in a lot of people, everything down there is free for the kids," Asmus said.

Asmus also says to keep an eye out for the 6-by-12 coloring mural as it makes appearances throughout the festival. The mural was made possible by a grant from the Tuscola County Community Foundation. Asmus encourages festival-goers to "just go and be creative" by picking up one of the 200 markers available and adding their touch to the mural of an orchard with sunflowers.

On Friday, July 21 at 6 p.m., the Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival committee presents its grand parade. The route begins at Mayville High School and passes north on Fulton Street, east on Main Street, south on First Street and west on Orchard Street.

Visitors are invited to stick around after the parade to see the Klik Band at 7 p.m. on Fulton Street. The band will cover a variety of familiar favorites. During the concert, visitors can practice their ax-throwing skills for free until 9 p.m. on Fulton Street, in an event hosted by Native Axe Throwing.

Food trucks will set up on Fulton Street starting at 4 p.m. July 21 and will remain open until 9 p.m. during the free concert. To wrap up Friday's festivities, the Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival will host a 10 p.m. fireworks show at the Mayville school athletic fields.

On Saturday, July 22 at 8 a.m., the Mayville Museum hosts its pancake breakfast fundraiser. Frankenmuth Credit Union sponsors the 5k Run/Walk at 9 a.m. at the Mayville High School track. The races are hosted by the Mayville cross-country and track teams. Registration begins at 9 a.m. July 22 and there is a $20 entry fee. At 9:45 a.m on July 22, a Kids' Fun Run takes place at the track. Also at the high school at 9 a.m. on July 22, a 3-on-3 basketball tournament occurs in memory of Aaron Wingert.

On Saturday evening, July 22, a community favorite – the Bump and Run Derby – starts at 5 p.m.

"It draws in our biggest crowd other than the fireworks," Asmus says. "Everyone seems to have a really good time, and intermission is when we draw for the winner of the golf cart raffle."

The golf cart raffle is the main fundraiser for the Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival. Asmus says there are usually between 30 and 40 cars in the Bump and Run Derby, and there is a minimum cash prize of $750 for the derby winner – $1,000 if 40 cars enter the event. Assistance for the derby is provided by the Mayville Area

Chamber of Commerce and Mayville Lions Club.

On Sunday, July 23 at 11 a.m., the festival comes to a close with a Community Church Service featuring John and Kate at the Veterans You Are Not Forgotten Pavilion on the Mayville museum grounds. A community potluck will follow the service.

The Michigan Mayville Sunflower Festival is largely funded by sponsors including Frankenmuth Credit Union, Cass City Oil & Gas Co., Express Stop Gas Station, Greater Thumb Real Estate, Mayville Area Chamber of Commerce, Mayville State Bank, McDonald Chevrolet/Millington, Wilkinson Solutions, and others. A complete list of sponsors can be found on the festival's website, MayvilleSunflowerFestival.com.

The festival committee also thanks the volunteers who work to run the festival. Those who wish to volunteer are encouraged to reach out to the committee, whose contact information is also listed on the festival's website.

For a full list of events, honorees, and sponsors, visit the festival's website or its Facebook page, entitled Michigan's Mayville Sunflower Festival.

Harrington creates winning shirt design

MAYVILLE – For the second year, the official Mayville Sunflower Festival shirt was designed by one of Darren Masterson's Mayville Middle School students.

Each student in Masterson's class submitted an entry for the design of the shirt, and a winner was chosen by the Festival Committee. This year's winner is Sierra Harrington who will enter eighth grade this fall at Mayville Community Schools.

Sierra is the daughter of Matt Harrington and Tracy Rowbotham. Along with her artistic ability, Sierra also participates in volleyball, basketball, cheerleading, track and field, and softball. She received an academic award for 2022-2023, and is the Student Council president of her class and on the Chess Club, and Esteem Team.

Sierra also loves to draw, paint ceramics, do math, and volunteer to help the community. In her spare time she loves to hang out with friends and family.
